Under Construction. A rare generational offering along St. Petersburg's desirable waterfront boulevard, this is not simply a property, but an extraordinary canvas awaiting its masterpiece. On 90 feet of direct Tampa Bay frontage, this structurally completed estate offers a fully engineered foundation of environmental resilience, designed to endure for generations while embracing panoramic, unobstructed sunrise vistas across the glistening bay. With its architectural shell fully constructed, featuring deep pile-reinforced foundations, solid concrete block masonry, hurricane-rated windows, steel beam integration and pre-constructed elevator core, the critical groundwork has been executed with precision. All vertical investment is fully funded, inspected and secured under active, transferable permits, eliminating years of entitlement risk and design delay. Now, the opportunity is yours with a blank canvas of enduring strength, awaiting only your vision, creativity and personal palette. Bring your paintbrush and colors. The remaining interior fit-out invites full customization, from grand entertaining spaces and gourmet culinary environments to private wellness retreats, resort-style outdoor living and state-of-the-art smart home integration.
